

Become a Member of The Santa Barbara Barristers

The Santa Barbara Barristers (SBB) is dedicated to promoting education, collegiality, and professional advancement for new attorneys in Santa Barbara, and supporting the work of legal and non-profit organizations serving the Santa Barbara community. Membership is open to all members of the State Bar of California and law students! Your SBB membership includes the following:

The OPPORTUNITY to support and be involved in many valuable services that SBB provides to our legal and non-legal community, such as pro bono and volunteer work.

The SATISFACTION of knowing that a portion of the proceeds from dues and SBB events are donated to local, qualifying non-profit legal and charitable organizations that submit for various needs via competitive grant and funding process.

The REPRESENTATION of new members of the profession in the local legal community. The SBB has a seat on various bar and professional organizations.

PRIDE in being a part of an engaging group.

LOW COST MCLE events and social mixers throughout the membership year.

FREE attorney oath (swearing-in) ceremonies and receptions.

FREE copy of the 2017-2018 Attorney Directory of Santa Barbara County, published by the Barristers' Club of Santa Barbara (Cost of Directory alone is $50.00). Available with paid Memberships only.

Membership in one of our community's most exciting and dynamic organizations.

Members who pay their membership dues prior to October 1st will be entitled to membership and all of the benefits it entails through the end of the calendar year in which the dues were paid. Members who pay their membership dues on or after October 1st will be entitled to membership and all of the benefits it entails through the end of the calendar year in which the dues were paid, plus the entirety of the following calendar year.
